

Name:

Date:

Current Event Research Form

Topic/ Event:

Why did this event interest you?

Is this a positive or negative event? Why?

Why would your classmates benefit from learning more about this event?

When did this event take place (can be a single date or a range)?

Where did this event take place (be as specific as possible)?

What other information was given on CNN 10?

What three questions did you have after learning about this event?

1.

2.

3.

Name:

Research

Read about this event on a minimum of ~~three~~ <sup>two</sup> different websites. Take notes below:

Title of article and author
Confirmed information (you already knew, but this says the same).
New information (unique to this article).
Conflicting information (anything that conflicts with prior research)
Golden Quote(s) (best line or two from the article)

Save this article to your EasyBib account!

Name:

Research

Read about this event on a minimum of ~~three~~<sup>two</sup> different websites. Take notes below:

Title of article and author
Confirmed information (you already knew, but this says the same).
New information (unique to this article).
Conflicting information (anything that conflicts with prior research)
Golden Quote(s) (best line or two from the article)

Save this article to your EasyBib account! ★ export to google drive.

STOP HERE
1 we
Tues

A Four Step Summary Paragraph by _____

Step 1: Write the three part toipc sentence (IVF Statement).

Identify it...	Verb it....	Finish it....

*State your topic

*Use a summary verb

*Finish your thought

Possible summary verbs: compares, describes, explains, gives, lists, presents, provides, shows, tells, etc.

Step 2: Rewrite the sentence to look like a real sentence. Fix capitalization, punctuation and spelling errors.

---

---

---

Step 3: List the important facts or details (5 W's and Significance)

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Step 4: Using your IVF Statement, fact list, and graphic organizer to write your summary paragraph about your current event.

